'Three with a Pen' Contemporary

Restaurant Week NYC

Art Exhibition

The Austrian Cultural Forum New York is pleased to present “Three with a Pen: Lily Renée, Bil Spira, and Paul Peter Porges” featuring works by the three Jewish artists driven from their homes in Vienna after the German annexation of Austria, the so-called “Anschluss,” in 1938. On view through September 3, 2021, the exhibition showcases examples of their signature work in comic books, New Yorker cartoons, Mad magazine spoofs, caricatures, portraiture, fashion design, advertising, and children’s books, among other formats. Biographical material and ephemera amplify the artists’ personal stories of survival and, in part, help contextualize their professional achievements.
