New York, NY – Forum Gallery is pleased to announce Twentieth Century Stories, a curated exhibition of works of art that capture unique narratives from a century of dynamic change. On view are works by eighteen insightful artists whose life experiences were as diverse as they were profound. The exhibition opens on Thursday, November 14, 2024, and continues through Saturday, January 4, 2025.

Twentieth Century Stories presents paintings, works on paper, photography and sculpture by Ernie Barnes, Davis Cone, Philip Evergood, César Galicia, Gregory Gillespie, William Gropper, Chaim Gross, George Grosz, Käthe Kollwitz, Jack Levine, Louis Lozowick, Reginald Marsh, Anthony Mitri, Bernard Perlin, Winfred Rembert, Ben Shahn, Raphael Soyer and Alfred Stieglitz. Each work is a compelling, humanist expression of subjects that include civil rights, the human toll of war, and the century's industrial progress, public works, and entertainment that challenged the world and changed modern life.
